Article X: Supremacy of the Senate and Bylaws

Section A: The Senate

- 1) The senate of the West Chester University SGA, as referred to in these bylaws, will have sole legislative power over matters concerning these bylaws, subject to the Constitution of the United States and the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
- 2) The senate will be empowered to enact all legislation necessary and proper to carry foregoing into effect; such legislation will become effective upon passage by the senate.

Section B: The Bylaws

- 1) These bylaws and all acts of the senate made in the pursuance thereof will be the supreme law of the SGA, and all SGA recognized student organizations of the West Chester University would be bound thereby, anything in the bylaws of other organizations to the contrary ratified notwithstanding.
- 2) Any revisions to these bylaws will originate from the senate or the Executive Committee through open discussion during a senate meeting or communication with the SGA parliamentarian. After a revision is suggested, it will be voted upon in the Executive Committee.
 - a) If the proposed change passes a simple majority vote in the Executive Committee, it will proceed to the senate.

- b) If the proposed change fails a simple majority vote in the Executive Committee, it will proceed to the Bylaw Review Committee
 - i) If the proposed change passes a simple majority in the Bylaw Review Committee, it will proceed to the senate.
 - ii) If the proposed change fails a simple majority vote in the Bylaw Review Committee, it will not proceed to the senate for the duration of the semester.
 - c) If approved by the Executive Committee or by the Bylaw Review Committee, a proposed bylaw change will proceed to the senate. With the final version being agreed upon, the changes, time and date of final approval shall be advertised at least one week in advance on the vote. The measure will be adopted with two-thirds of the members of the senate present voting in the affirmative.
- 3) All previously ratified bylaws of the SGA and its predecessors are null and void. Only the SGA bylaws, as amended, the SGA Financial Policies and Procedures, as amended, Student Organization Policies and Procedures Manual, as amended, and fiscal budgets will have binding power.

Section C: Nonbinding Resolutions

- 1) A nonbinding resolution is defined as a formal statement by the SGA expressing opinion, recommendations, or stances on various campus issues or matters of student concern. Nonbinding resolutions shall not carry the force of binding policy but serve to raise awareness, promote discussion, and convey the sentiments of the student body.
- 2) Any nonbinding resolutions will originate from the senate or Executive Committee. After a resolution is suggested, it will be voted upon by the Executive Committee.
 - a. If the proposed resolution passes a simple majority vote in the Executive Committee, it will proceed to the Bylaw Review Committee.
 - b. The Bylaw Review Committee will ensure that there are no contradictions between the proposed nonbinding resolution and the bylaws of the SGA. If the proposed resolution passes a majority vote in the Bylaw Review Committee, it will proceed to be voted on by the majority of the SGA senate.
- 3) Once a nonbinding resolution is passed by the SGA senate, the secretary will be responsible for posting it to the SGA website, and the president will be responsible for sending it to any pertaining bodies or members of the university.

Section C: Other Student Organizations

- 1) All new and forming organizations seeking recognition from SGA will follow the steps and timeline detailed in the Student Organization Policies and Procedures Manual.
- 2) The bylaws of all student organizations will be referred to the Bylaw Review Committee for its review. No bylaws will violate the Constitution of the United States, the Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, West Chester University regulations, the SGA bylaws, the Student Organization Policies and Procedures Manual, and/or the SGA Financial Policies and Procedures.

Section D: Senate Year

- 1) The senate year will begin by the second week of the fall semester and end by the last week of April of the following year, beginning with the induction of SGA officers and ending with the induction of their successors.

Section E: Summer Break Powers

- 1) For the duration of the summer vacation, all powers of the senate, excluding removal of officer proceedings, will be vested in the Executive Committee until the first regular meeting of the fall semester.
 - a) Bylaw changes may be made with the consensus of the Executive Committee and the approval of the advisor.

Section F: Financial Policies

- 1) All financial policies for the SGA will be enumerated in the SGA Financial Policies and Procedures, which will be the final word on financial matters of SGA, as amended and approved by a majority vote of the SGA Senate and approved by the SSI Board of Directors.

Section G: Organizational Policies

- 2) All organizational policies for SGA will be enumerated in the Student Organization Policies and Procedures Manual, which will be the final word on organizational matters of SGA, as amended and approved by a majority vote of the senate and approved by the vice president of Student Affairs.

Article XI: Anti-Discrimination Clause

- 1) The SGA will not deny membership to anyone who wishes to join based on gender identity/expression, race, religion, creed, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status.
