As you explore careers, it can be helpful to take note of certain information relating to each career that you are considering. Answer the following questions to begin researching fields of interest. Resources like onetonline.org and bls.gov/ooh will help you in your exploration:

Name of Career: _____

- What do people in this job do?
- Where do these people work? What types of industries?
- What knowledge, skills, and abilities are needed in this field?
- What education and training is typically required?
- What is an average salary?
- What interests you most about this career?
- What concerns do you have about this career?
- What are some related careers that you can explore?
- Who could you talk to and where else could you look to learn more about this career?
