

2023 West Chester University Elementary School Summer Music Camp
Dr. Ralph Sorrentino, Director

Elementary School Choral Track

The Elementary School Choral Track seeks to:

- Offer an opportunity for elementary school students to develop their vocal skills and overall musicianship in a fun and encouraging atmosphere
- Provide a rewarding choral experience for singers of all ability levels
- Introduce elementary school students to a variety of choral repertoire, utilizing part-singing (canon, partner song, descant melody, etc.)
- Reinforce and enhance the concepts covered in students' elementary school choirs and general music classes

Sample Daily Schedule:

Monday, June 26th through Friday, June 30th

9:00am-10:10am: Vocal exercises/technique, rehearse concert repertoire

10:15am-10:45am: Faculty recital (instrumental/vocal faculty performances)

10:50am-12:00pm: Music/singing games, rehearse concert repertoire

Our finale concert takes place at 12:30pm on Friday, June 30th

Elementary School Choral Faculty:

Dr. Marci Major, Chair of Music Education - West Chester University

Madeline Ley, classically trained soprano and voice teacher

- Elementary School Summer Music Camp registration must be completed by June 21st
- Please visit www.wcupa.edu/SummerMusicCamps for brochures, Frequently Asked Questions, etc.